I am absurdly tempted to merely comment "First!" I think this is a measure of how very tired I am, hoe very late it is, and how nervous I am about my Etsy shop.

I'm going to bed now. Again.

Good luck on both sleep and the Etsy shop.

A cousin of this genius lived across from me in the 90s. His obsession was XMas... in a heavily Jewish neighborhood. Nuttin' but love from the street... and a sneaky gift left in honor of his electric bill.

Yeah. And I've been watching your pants get baggier all week. You're not going to eat enough if we stay here. And I, for one, have had enough uncomfortable silences in the last three days to last me a year.

Let's blow this popsicle stand. Hell, let's see if Mom will let us take a half-day of comp time and go to the Zoo.

Get out. Both of you. As your senior officer, I order you to enjoy the holiday weekend.

In fact, except in the event of a national emergency or a hostage crisis, if I see either of you in here before Tuesday morning, I'm writing you up.

Now that's the sort of leadership this nation needs more of!
